

Exhibit "A"

Chapter 10 - ANIMALS

ARTICLE 1. IN GENERAL

Sec. 10-1. Definitions

Continual Noise or frequent or long continued noise means noise pollution, unwanted or excessive sound, a nuisance that interferes with activities, for example owning an animal that causes frequent or long-continued noise, by barking or howling, that disturbs the comfort of any person.